ASSASSIN'S BULLET ENDS LIFE OF KING GEORGE OF GREECE; WHOLE NATION IN MOURNING

TRAGEDY IS ENACTED AT SALONICA WHILE KING IS ENJOYING WALK WITH AIDES

BELIEF HELD BY SOME THAT ASSASSIN WAS EMPLOYED BY TURKISH GOVERNMENT TO KILL THE KING.

ATHENS, March 19 — The Greek nation is today mourning deeply over the assassination of King George. All flags are being floated at half mast. Telegrams of condolence are being received from all over the world. King Constantine and Queen Olga are now on the way to Salonika. The body of the dead king will be brought to Athens on board a Greek warship.

The assassin, Aleko Schinas, is a Greek of low type and mentally feeble. He walked up close to the king, who was walking with his aides near the white tower in Salonika, pulled a revolver from his blouse and shot the king through the head. The king sank to the ground unconscious. He was immediately carried to a hospital and died within a few minutes after arriving there.

One story received from Salonika says the assassin was torn limb from limb by the furious Greeks, another says Schinas was arrested by the soldiers, and a third says the assassin has been chained in prison.

Schinas is a short, stooped, dark-skinned man about 40 years of age. Indications are he has either Turkish or negro blood in his veins. He has lived abroad for about six years, part of the time in the United States.

One story received here says Schinas cried out as he shot, "You are a murderer and deserve death."

The city of Salonika was in a state of pandemonium after the murder last night, but was finally quieted.

It is announced today that the tragedy will make no difference in the campaign of the Balkan war.

It is reported here today that considerable money was found on the body of Schinas, and it is believed by some that Schinas was employed by the Turkish government to assassinate King George. A strict censorship is still being maintained over all reports sent out of Salonika.

Assassin Not Half Witted—

NEW YORK, March 19 — Greek Consul Botassi today declared that Alek Schinas, the assassin of King George, is not half-witted as the dispatches indicate, but is well educated, and was once a candidate for member of the Greek chamber of deputies.

He says Schinas is a rabid anarchist who has brooded over recent defeats and probably became insane.

Judge Bert Fish of the Volusia county criminal court of record is in the city on business today.

PALM BEACH LIMITED WILL BE TAKEN OFF

TO MAKE LAST TRIP SOUTH SUNDAY, RETURNING MONDAY

OTHER TRAINS TO BE REMOVED NEXT WEEK AND SCHEDULE WILL BE REARRANGED BY THE FIRST OF APRIL.

That the tourist season is fast drawing to an end is shown by the announcement of the Florida East Coast railroad that the Palm Beach Limited train, which is run, usually only during the season the big hotels are open, will be discontinued after this week, that other trains will be discontinued during next week and that the train schedule will be rearranged before the first of next month.

Announcement just made by J. D. Rahner, general passenger agent, is that the last run of the Palm Beach Limited, southbound, due in Daytona at 12:50 p. m., will be next Sunday, and the last run northbound, due in Daytona at 2:12 p. m., will be next Monday, March 24.

Commencing Tuesday, March 25, a new train will be operated between New Smyrna and Jacksonville, leaving New Smyrna at 5:30 o'clock in the morning, carrying coaches and two parlor cars. This train will be known as "second No. 28," and will run four hours behind No. 28's schedule, making all stops. Southbound this train will be known as "first, No. 35" and will observe the present schedule of No. 35, arriving in Daytona at 1:40 p. m. This is merely a temporary service and will be discontinued when the need for it ceases.

No. 82 will be discontinued as a passenger train after next Monday. This is the early morning express train leaving New Smyrna for Jacksonville and passing through Daytona at 4:[illegible] a. m.

The through New York trains, Nos. 87, 88, 89 and 86, will be discontinued after March 31. Trains Nos. 85 and 86 between New York and Key West, operated by the Atlantic Coast Line north of Jacksonville, will be inaugurated at once, as there will be little break in the service at that time. The first run of No. 85 will leave Jacksonville at 1:[illegible] p. m., Sunday, March 30, and will reach Daytona about 4:[illegible] o'clock in the afternoon. This train will handle two sleepers between New York and Key West, one a compartment car, and local sleepers to meet the demands of travel.

Worry Cause of Hypochondria.

The most common disease caused by worry is hypochondria. Its victim is the man or woman who worries that he or she is going to be ill every time he or she feels indisposed. Physically they are strong and normal, but they suffer from a mental disease which is a variety of morbid worry.

OATMEAL CURE FOR DIABETES.

Prof. Von Noorden, Viennese authority on nutrition, reports that only 65 of 310 diabetic patients were not benefitted by the oatmeal cure, which he originated and which has been generally adopted. This oatmeal diet is occasionally varied by a day on green vegetables, which provides rest for the digestive functions, largely. This, Von Noorden says, is equivalent to a fast, as the digestion of green vegetables relieves the organism concerned in the digestion of starches and sugars, which is at fault in diabetes. Much progress is being made in the direction of adopting the mono-diet principle in the treatment of disease.

Nothing To It.

Patience—This paper says that the French language is more suitable for use when telephoning than the English has been discovered since London and Paris were linked by telephone. Patrice—Why, that's ridiculous; I had a Frenchman telephone one day, and I couldn't understand a word he said!—Yonkers Statesman.

Irresistible Attraction.

Briggs—"I understand that Bulger fell in love with the girl he married at first sight." Griggs—"Yes; when he first saw her she was making a fat deposit in the savings bank."

THE DAILY NEWS--15 Cents a Wee

Heir Apparent.

Said an up-town politician to his son: "Look at me! I began as an inspector of elections, and here I am an alderman-at-large; and what is my reward? Why, when I die, my son will be the greatest rascal in the city." To which the young hopeful replied: "Yes, dad, when you die—but not till then."

Truth About an Author.

Hardy's secret, it seems, is like that of Richardson. Both are famous as anatomists of the feminine heart, and each in his youth wrote the love letters of many humble and illiterate young women. Literary biography, like history, repeats itself.—Boston Transcript.

Must Be Either Good or Bad.

"A man's mind may be likened to a garden, which may be intelligently cultivated, or allowed to run wild; but whether cultivated or neglected, it must, and will bring forth. If no useful seeds are put into it, then an abundance of useless weed-seeds will fall therein, and will continue to produce their kind."—James Allen.

Evidently Not.

Mrs. Malaprop—No, I never was strong on literature. To save my life I couldn't tell you who wrote Gray's Elegy.—Life.

The Drawback.

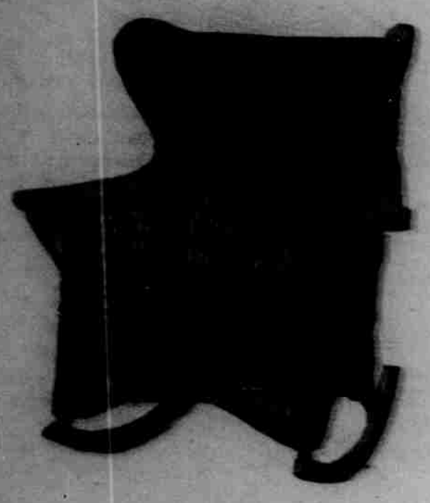

The sage who remarked that "every cloud has a silver lining" might have gone on to explain that the lining isn't visible from the position which the majority of us have to view the clouds.

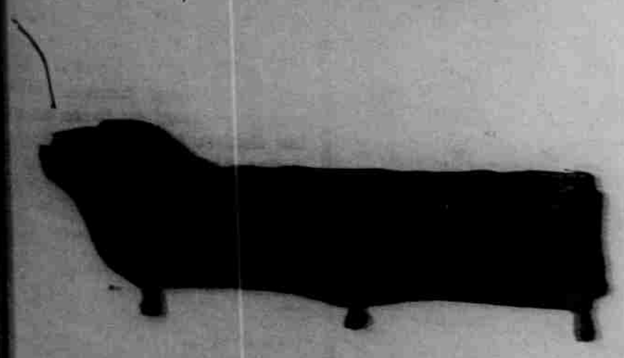

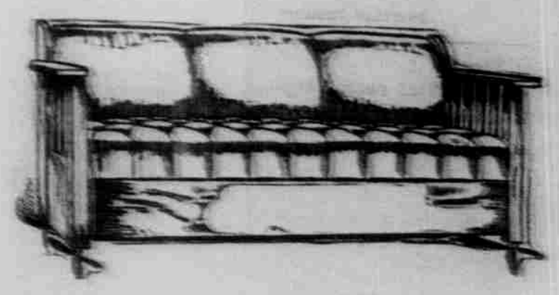

Very Many Women.

Continuous self-sacrifice is some women's idea of living a useful life. —Florida Times-Union.

Initiative.

"It's the man that's a-trying something new that gets laughed at every time. And he is generally right—the rest are wrong. Somebody has got to begin and be guyed like a fool, and hide and starve, and eat his heart out—and then after years and years the rest of the world that was too lazy to do its own thinking comes a-strutting up to pat him on the back and invite him to dinner—and everybody comes in on the chorus: 'I told you so!'"

DR. DOYEN

Dr. Doyen, the famous French surgeon and man of science, claims, it is reported, to have discovered, in a mixture labeled "Mycolysine-solution colloidale phagogene polyvalente," a veritable elixir of life; for it is said that the mixture will cure ninety-nine diseases from consumption to a cold in the head. It is assumed that the liquid consists of a substance in colloidal solution, which has a stimulating effect on the white blood corpuscles whose duty it is to repulse invading micro-organisms.

Gifts for Filipino Tribesmen.

While traveling around among these people of the mountains the giving of presents enters a great deal into the methods of treating with them. As a rule the gifts which are acceptable are mere trifles. Among the Ifugaos a custom formerly required them to wear in the hair a white rooster's feather on fiesta days. More recently a strip of onion skin tissue paper an inch wide has been introduced, and it is now the universal present from the secretary on his visit. These papers are worn as a sign of holiday, and after the fiesta is over they are carefully preserved till another occasion calls them forth. The Ifugaos and Calingas like beads, and a common bead of imitation agate which is worth a few centavos in Manila has its value enhanced till it is worth 50 centavos in the hills. Scarlet cloth is also acceptable to the Ifugaos and Bongocs. One of the very highest prizes of all is the pearl oyster shell, and several of these are always taken along. A great deal of discretion must be exercised in giving such presents, so as not to cheapen them, nor to place them in the hands of the wrong people.—Manila Times.

Munchausenisms.

A New York journal says there are cornstalks in Connecticut "as large as a small tree." How convenient! Now, in the Ohio valley bottom lands the chief drawback to corn raising is that the squirrels climb the stalks and when safely out of rifle range eat the ears, while the airship in its present development wobbles so that it is no good to shoot from.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Convenient Shoe Horns.

A problem which has agitated the feminine mind for some time has been successfully solved at last. A way in which women may reach their feet unaided, even though corseted, comes to relieve those who are overburdened with obesity. How is this feat accomplished? It's simple if one possesses one of the new shoe horns which have a three-foot wooden handle attached to the horn. This novelty is imported, and though the price may seem high, the relief purchased with one of these toilet accessories is certainly worth the price.

Differing View.

"I asked your husband last night if he had to live his life over again if he would marry you, and he said he certainly would." "He certainly wouldn't."—Judge.

His Unavailing Search.

"Well, James Henry Williams, did you enjoy yourself at the seaside?" "Yes, teacher, very much. I liked the sea, but I couldn't find the Isthemis." "The what, James Henry Williams?" "The Isthemis, teacher; where it says in the Bible, 'The sea and all that in them is.'"

DELAYS OF THE MAILS ARE SERIOUS

LACK OF RAILWAY CLERKS IS CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE

"STUCK" MATTER COMING TO THE STAR IS SENT IN ANY OLD DIRECTION TO BE WORKED BY CLERKS.

"Stuck mail" is not only being sent over the state of Florida to be worked out as best the overworked mail clerks can, but it is being turned back to be worked out on the division from Jacksonville to Miami when opportunity offers, and then comes back to be distributed in this state. This is learned from men who are the workings of the service and are in touch with conditions.

From the same source it is also learned that special delivery mail, of the first class, is being delayed from 24 to 48 hours when coming from the north and east, because of the fact that it is in the "stuck mail" and cannot be delivered until it gets into the hands of the proper clerks on their right runs. It is said that recently special delivery letters from Boston and Augusta, Maine, for delivery in this state on that day, were sent down the East Coast to be worked out, but the clerks on the run had, of their own mail, as much as they could possibly attend to, and were forced to take these mails back to Jacksonville, where only part of it was worked out, and the rest was finally worked out on the next trip down and then distributed for delivery, nearly, if not quite 48 hours after it should have been in the hands of the addressee. This, too, was mail upon which the extra fee had been paid to insure prompt delivery on a special day.

From all sources come complaints of tangling in handling of the mails coming to this state from the north and west.

From Atlanta down, there is the same trouble, and investigation shows but one thing: The lack of competent men in the service. The cry has gone up for more help, and the answer has come to the effect that no more help will be forthcoming at present. The reported completion of the Panama canal is one of those matters the keen eye of the railway mail service has been taking a quickly of preparing their pupils for the railway mail service, and when there is a call for examinations, and the list is out, are sent down here to assist, when their very inexperience and unacquaintance but adds to the congestion and delay.

When the order was given for the Florida mail to be worked between Washington and Miami, provision was made for this in the addition of clerks and the furnishing of larger cars, but the basis of increase of help was made upon the lowest possible amount of matter being transmitted at the time the inspectors went over the system, with the result that the clerks on that division have more of their own legitimate mail than they can handle even with overwork and extra hours.

In the meantime, and during the past twenty months, Florida has increased. Mail from Boston and New York, due in Florida today, may be delivered tomorrow; and that, regardless of whether it is newspapers or important business letters, bearing first class postage, and in addition a special delivery stamp.

The superintendent and chief clerks are powerless in the matter, for they are compelled to take orders and try to carry them out.

It is the opinion of all concerned that the greatest work of the new administration will be in putting the mail service back to the standard it held many years ago, before the mistaken policy of "economy of operation" was put in force to compel a showing of profit even at the reducing of the service to the condition of uncertainty in everything save the one fact that if a letter is coming to Florida from the north, it will get here sooner or later.

A. Cutler of Laporte, Ind., has returned from a trip to points on the lower East Coast and Cuba, and is again with C. A. S. Tice and family on West Magnolia avenue. He will remain here until about the first of April. Like many others Mr. Cutler found no place that suited him, as well as Daytona and he will come to this city again next winter. Mr. Cutler is in the undertaking business at Laporte.

"Stuck mail" is not only being sent over the state of Florida to be worked out as best the overworked mail clerks can, but it is being turned back to be work out on the division from Jacksonville to Hamlet when opportunity offers, and then comes back to be distributed in this state. From Atlanta down, there is the same trouble, and investigation shows but one thing: The lack of competent men in the service. The cry has gone up for more help, and the answer has come in the shape of—if it comes at all—inexperienced men, many of them negroes who have just completed the required examination in one of the many negro high school of the country that are making a specialty of preparing their pupils for the railway mail service, and who have taken the examination, and, being on the list, are sent down here to assist, when their very inexperience and uselessness but adds to the congestion and delay.

When the order was given for the Florida mail to be worked between Washington and Hamlet, provision was made for this in the addition of clerks and the furnishing of larger cars, but the basis of increase of help was made upon the lowest possible amount of matter being transmitted at the time the inspectors went over the system, with the result that the clerks on that division have more of their own legitimate mail than they can handle even with overwork and extra hours.

VILLAGE OF PORT ORANGE NOW INCORPORATED TOWN

DECISION MADE AT ELECTION HELD MONDAY NIGHT — DR. H. K. DUBOIS SELECTED AS FIRST MAYOR.

The village of Port Orange, which for several years has been agitating the question of incorporation, finally took the decisive step at an election held for the purpose Monday night.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather 38 citizens showed their interest in municipal affairs by braving the elements and but three of these voted against the incorporation of the village. A feeling of good will pervaded the proceedings and the result was accepted in good part by all.

Dr. H. K. DuBois, an old and well known resident of the village, was selected as mayor of the new town and the council consists of [illegible] Martin, H. E. Lyon, J. L. [illegible], [illegible] Case and J. L. Pattillo. A. M. Martin is clerk and I. J. Wells, Jr., marshal. The new officers were given the oath of office and are ready for business and plans for improvement will doubtless be considered in the near future. The people of Port Orange are to be congratulated on their almost unanimous desire for this advancement.

CITRUS MOVING NOW AT 100 CARS EVERY DAY.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Mar. 19.—The citrus fruit crop is moving at the rate of more than 100 cars per day this week, and the prices have been stronger in all markets. The movement last week included 712 cars and shipments to western markets were heavy. There is every indication that higher prices will be maintained during the remainder of the season. About four weeks shipping will clean up all mid-season oranges and about all the grapefruit.

The crop of Valencias are in fine flavor, with texture and quality of the best. There will be about 300 cars of this variety of fruit, which will move during May and June. Both oranges and grapefruit are running in sizes too large for many markets to obtain the best results, this being particularly true of all southern markets which desire small fruit. Grapefruit is running to large sizes and for that reason most markets are overstocked. Large sizes, 28s and 36s are a drug on most markets, while other sizes are in fair demand at $2.25 to $3.00 per box.

FLORIDA VEGETABLE CROP WILL BE RECORD BREAKER

ACREAGE TAKEN AS A WHOLE IS ESTIMATED TO BE ONE-FOURTH MORE THAN THAT OF LAST SPRING.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., March 19.—The vegetable crop of Florida this year will be a record breaker. The total acreage is probably one-fourth larger than last year and owing to the weather conditions in almost every section, the crop will not only be large but early.

The East Coast tomato crop now moving is large and of splendid quality and there will also be large shipments of peppers, beans and cauliflower. The potato acreage in the Hastings belt as well as potato in Dade county is the largest ever planted and the movement will be heavy by April 1.

On the west coast and central part of the state there has been a substantial increase in almost every commodity. The Manatee section has suffered severely from rains the past two weeks, which has interfered with celery shipments and the vegetable crops. A large acreage of Irish potatoes is going in as the weather permits. The Sanford celery crop is moving briskly, but has been delayed by rainy weather, but the cool night has put the crop in better conditions. Lettuce is moving, also beans, in a small way. There should be a nice crop of melons at Leesburg and throughout Lake county. There will be a large acreage of melons also in Marion and Sumter counties, the tomato and cucumber acreage being larger than last year. Beans are coming on nicely at Webster and Center Hill and at Micanopy, Evinston and McIntosh the movement of lettuce and cabbage is heavy. The bean crop is in good shape and shipments have begun to move.

FLORIDA POTATO CROP WILL BE BEST IN STATE'S HISTORY

FROM EVERY INDICATION AT THIS TIME THE HASTINGS PRODUCTION WILL BE BUMPER ONE THIS SPRING.

HASTINGS, Fla., Mar. 19.—The Irish potato crop in this section is in fine condition and every indication points to a bumper yield. There has never before been a season when climatic conditions have been more favorable. Vines are healthy and show an 85 per cent stand. To date no blight has appeared and growers believe the weather and good seed has been the principal reason that the crop is in such excellent shape. The movement will start the latter part of this month, with quite a heavy carlot movement by April 10. The season is two to three weeks earlier than last year.

E. L. McClung, who is heavily interested in the deal, said: "You can say for me that the total acreage planted in this section is about 8,000 acres, or an increase in the entire section of about 1000 acres. Never in my experience in the Hastings potato deal have I ever seen such good prospects for a bumper crop. The crop is in the best possible condition owing to the intelligent cultivation by the growers and vines are in absolutely perfect condition and 85 per cent stand. The fields present a beautiful sight and shipments will begin the last of this month. I would not be surprised to see 250,000 to 300,000 barrels of spuds rolling out of this section this year. It is a bumper crop and of excellent quality."

The Hastings section last year shipped 150,000 barrels, under adverse conditions.

The barrel factories here are working night and day to their full capacity and are receiving carlots of staves and hoops which are made up and stored, or delivered direct to the growers as ordered.

ENJOYED A DELIGHTFUL ST. PATRICK'S DAY TEA.

The social committee of the Palmetto club under the direction of their efficient chairman, Mrs. Marcus H. Rogers, were the hostesses at a delightful function marking the day of "wearing of the green." All nature came out in an exquisite robe of green and the small number of members who braved the inclemency of the weather and attended the tea were more than delighted with their reception. Lovely palms and fresh bamboo made the graceful decorations. Nasturtiums and sweet alyssum gave the note of color. The Palmetto orchestra gave many charming selections, and at the proper hour coffee, tea and wafers were served. This closes the series of teas given this season, each and all of which have been informal, cheery and above all most hospitable functions. * * *

FOOTBALLS.

They Are Not Made of Pigskin and the "Bladders" Are Rubber.

When you refer to football players as pigskin chasers, state that Smith can boot the pigskin, you display considerable ignorance, said a member of a firm which manufactures the spheroids used on many of the big and little gridirons.

For the football is not made of pigskin at all. In fact, no part of the lowly but luscious porker enters into its construction.

Football covers are made from the material that goes to make your best shoes—calfskin. And only the very best grade of skin is used for good balls. Cheap balls, such as kids buy at the corner store, are made of sheepskin. The bladder which is in the ball is rubber.

A visit to the factory where the greatest number of footballs are turned out elicits more interesting information. For instance, a shop sage says that the reason the ball is called pigskin is that in the old days a pig's bladder was used to give buoyancy to the ball. The bladder has been discarded and rubber substituted.

The regulation intercollegiate ball weighs from thirteen and one-quarter to fourteen ounces. The soccer ball weighs from thirteen to fifteen ounces.

Skins for football covers are carefully inspected and are sent to the factory after special treatment. The slightest flaw in a hide means rejection.

In the cutting room skill is required to prevent waste. Cutting is done with machinery. The cutter divides the hide into as many oval sections as possible and sends the pieces to the girls who take up the next stage, which consists of carefully lining the leather with cotton twill. This is the only work intrusted to girls. It is slow and must be done perfectly.

The liners are stitched together on one machine and the covers on another. From the last machine the covers come wrong side out, and the better grades are reversed by hand. The cheaper are turned right side out by machinery.

Turning a football cover by hand requires great strength. Some men do nothing else and as a result become exceptionally strong of hand, wrist and arm.

The rubber bladder is inserted, and when inflated the oval begins to look like the finished product now seen on many fields, but the ball is not ready for delivery. It is stamped on a hot press and "worked" until its outer surface is ready for the kickoff.

Changed Times.

In a meadow a half dozen young women golf players were practicing putting. They looked very smart in their trim golf suits, their skirts of rough homespun and their scarlet jackets. An old farmer and one of his farm hands approached.

"Boss," grumbled the farm hand, "them girls in the medder is scarin' our cows."

The old farmer shook his head and sighed.

"Ah, Timothy," he said, with profound truth, "times is changed since I was young. In them days the cows scared the gals."—Washington Star.

The Troubles of a Giant.

George Cumberland saw the famous giant Obrian Bore in the Strand in London in 1784, and in "The Cumberland Letters," edited by Clementina Black, gives this note on him: "His hand, from the ball of his thumb, actually measures eleven inches and a half and is large in proportion. When I stood up I could just with my forefinger touch the bottom of his chin—in a word, he is eight feet three inches high, and his bones are in proportion large—but the poor devil seems to be dying for want of air and exercise. He is nineteen years of age and expects to be nine feet high."

Curious Russian Law.

Russia has a law which to outside observers seems almost to put a premium on theft by which stolen goods become the property of the thief if he can prove that he has had possession of them for over five years. In the thieves' market—which is, of course, licensed by the police—goods that admittedly have been stolen (more than five years before) are openly offered for sale, and the place is a veritable Mecca for the light fingered gentry and their enterprising friends, as also for the more honest members of society, who secure many a tempting bargain.

An Even Break.

Mr. Jinks—You've spent fourteen mortal hours and $35 and what have you got to show for it? One hat worth about $3.50. Mrs. Jinks—True. And last week you spent five days and $118, and what have you got to show for it? One fish story about a big trout that got away and an awful cold in your head.—Country Gentleman.

An Important Man.

"Always boasting, eh?"

"Yes; everything connected with him is always in the superlative. Even when he had a cataract on his eye it was a regular Niagara."—Kansas City Journal.

Same Thing.

Gillet—See here! Did you tell Budd I'd been cheated again? Perry—No; I merely said you had made another of your characteristic investments.—London Mail.

Do not allow idleness to deceive you, for while you give him today he steals tomorrow from you.—Crowquill.

BOUNDARY LINE MARKS.

Those Between Hanover and Holland on the Rhine Are Unique.

Many of the international boundary marks display a sentimental as well as a practical character. The famous "Pillar of Farewell," which marks the line between Russia and Siberia, has been celebrated in song and story. This boundary mark stands between Ekaterinburg, in Russia, and Tiumen, in Siberia. It stands on the main road along which thousands of exiles have passed. It is an obelisk of brick, sixteen feet in height. On the west side it bears in Russian characters the word "Europe," and on the east side the word "Asia."

The boundary marks along our northern frontier, separating us from Canada, are of a most practical sort. For many hundreds of miles the St. Lawrence river and the great lakes form the natural boundaries, but there is a vast stretch of prairie land beyond with no natural demarcation. The boundary marks here are pillars of iron and wood placed at intervals of one mile. They have been alternately supplied by the two governments and may be seen from the Lake of the Woods to the Red river valley. Beyond that the marks are mounds of earth and cairns of stone.

The strangest of European frontier lines is that marking the boundary between Hanover and Holland, where it crosses the Rhine. A row of pontoons lies across the river, chained bow and stern. Inasmuch as the dividing line runs through from stem to stern, the eastern halves of the boats are painted in German colors, the western in Dutch. The effect is most striking.

Austria has a frontier line of about 3,900 miles, of which 2,096 is land. Every mile of this must be guarded against the encroachments of Austria's neighbors. Germany is in a similar situation, since her land frontiers, bordering upon Russia, Austria, Switzerland, France, Holland and Belgium are 2,255 miles in extent, and by far the larger portion is not protected by mountains, rivers or any other natural boundaries. The German seacoast, however, is only 744 miles in extent.—Harper's.

DRESS OF MALTESE WOMEN.

Silk Hooded Cloaks Hide Face and Form From the Curious.

The dress of the Maltese is very singular, and that of the women striking in the extreme. When abroad they are all arrayed in black. They put on over their other dress a robe or loose skirt of that color, brought high on the bosom, and in place of bonnets their heads are covered with a black silk mantle which invests their shoulders and descends halfway behind.

The part which covers the head is furnished with a piece of whalebone inserted in the hem, which keeps it in position and prevents the silk from dropping over the eyes. One hand, placed inside, is always necessary to hold together the sides of the scarf in front, and the other hand is often hid under its folds, only a forefinger being suffered to appear through the opening left for the purpose. Of course, under such mufflers little can be seen of the beauties of form or feature if a Maltese nymph happens to possess them. The eyes and a moving, pall black figure are all that can be distinguished.

But sometimes the fair one deigns to exhibit her face to a curious gazer in place of engrossing herself the privilege of seeing, and features good humored, rather pleasing than handsome and irradiated by a pair of fine, sparkling eyes, are displayed to the beholder. The complexion is a dark olive, partaking a little of a sort of mulatto tinge.

The mantle is obviously borrowed, or rather it has descended from a distant age and people. It answers to the veil of eastern ladies.

Such figures, thousands of whom are abroad on the Sabbath, give the streets a funeral look. It seems as if all Malta had gone into mourning.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Scott's Narrow Escape.

The world had a narrow escape of never having known a Sir Walter Scott. When a tiny babe he was left in charge of a maid, but the girl's heart was in Edinburgh, whither she wanted to go to rejoin her lover. She was, however, compelled to stay and look after the infant at Sandy Knowe. The girl regarded her charge as an obstacle to be removed and afterward confessed that she carried young Scott up to the crags under a strong temptation of the devil, as she expressed it, fully intending to cut his throat with her scissors and bury him under the moss.

Classifying Him.

"Brother Hardesty, can't you make your contribution for the education of the heathen a little larger than usual this year?"

"Dr. Goodman, I'm more than doubling it. I have just started that youngest boy of mine to college."—Chicago Tribune.

His Lesson.

"You know I refused you half a dozen times before we were married," said Mr. Muckton's wife.

"Yes," replied her husband. "I suspect that's what has kept me from ever wanting my own way again."—Washington Star.

Daily Thought.

Alexander the Great, reflecting on his friends degenerating into sloth and luxury, told them that it was a most slavish thing to luxuriate and a most royal thing to labor.—Isaac Barrow.

Couple Too Much Occupied.

An example of an absent-minded bridal pair is reported from Switzerland. A couple had arranged for their marriage by the civil and religious authorities failed to appear at the appointed hour, having, as they declared, "forgotten all about it."

Unduly Apprehensive.

"What has this uplift business done for you?" "I dunno, yet," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "Sometimes I think mebbe I'm gettin' lifted up jes' enough to make the bump seem harder when it comes."

Found New Use for Whisky.

A new use for whisky has been discovered by a Sepoy of Ipoh, Straits Settlements. The man recently poured a quantity of the spirit into his eyes in order to inflame them, and so enable him to procure a medical order for a pension.

FOOTBALLS.

They Are Not Made of Pigskin and the "Bladders" Are Rubber.

When you refer to football players as pigskin chasers, state that Smithly can boot the pigskin, you display considerable ignorance, said a member of a firm which manufactures the spheroids used on many of the big and little gridirons.

For the football is not made of pigskin at all, in fact, no part of the lowly but luscious porker enters into its construction.

Football covers are made from the material that goes to make your best shoes—calfskin. And only the very best grade of skin is used for good balls. Cheap balls, such as kids buy at the corner store, are made of sheepskin. The bladder which is in the ball is rubber.

A visit to the factory where the greatest number of footballs are turned out elicits more interesting information. For instance, a shop sage says that the reason the ball is called pigskin is that in the old days a pig's bladder was used to give buoyancy to the ball. The bladder has been discarded and rubber substituted.

The regulation intercollegiate ball weighs from thirteen and one-quarter to fourteen ounces. The soccer ball weighs from thirteen to fifteen ounces.

Skins for football covers are carefully inspected and are sent to the factory after special treatment. The slightest flaw in a hide means rejection.

In the cutting room skill is required to prevent waste. Cutting is done with machinery. The cutter divides the hide into as many oval sections as possible and sends the pieces to the girls who take up the next stage, which consists of carefully lining the leather with cotton twill. This is the only work intrusted to girls. It is slow and must be done perfectly.

The liners are stitched together on one machine and the covers on another. From the last machine the covers come wrong side out, and the better grades are reversed by hand. The cheaper are turned right side out by machinery.

Turning a football cover by hand requires great strength. Some men do nothing else and as a result become exceptionally strong of hand, wrist and arm.

The rubber bladder is inserted, and when inflated the oval begins to look like the finished product now seen on many fields, but the ball is not ready for delivery. It is stamped on a hot press and "worked" until its outer surface is ready for the kickoff.

Changed Times.

In a meadow a half dozen young women golf players were practicing putting. They looked very smart in their trim golf suits, their skirts of rough homespun and their scarlet jackets. An old farmer and one of his farm hands approached.

"Boss," grumbled the farm hand, "them girls in the medder is scarin' our cows."

The old farmer shook his head and sighed.

"Ah, Timothy," he said with profound truth, "times is changed since I was young. In them days the cows scared the gals."—Washington Star.

The Troubles of a Giant.

George Cumberland saw the famous giant Obrian Boro in the Strand in London in 1784, and in "The Cumberland Letters," edited by Clementina Black, gives this note on him: "His hand, from the ball of his thumb, actually measures eleven inches and a half and is large in proportion. When I stood up I could just with my forefinger touch the bottom of his chin—in a word, he is eight feet three inches high, and his bones are in proportion large—but the poor devil seems to be dying for want of air and exercise. He is nineteen years of age and expects to be nine feet high."

Curious Russian Law.

Russia has a law which to outside observers seems almost to put a premium on theft by which stolen goods become the property of the thief if he can prove that he has had possession of them for over five years. In the thieves' market—which is, of course, licensed by the police—goods that admittedly have been stolen (more than five years before) are openly offered for sale, and the place is a veritable Mecca for the light fingered gentry and their enterprising friends, as also for the more honest members of society, who secure many a tempting bargain.

An Even Break.

Mr. Jinks—You've spent fourteen mortal hours and $35 and what have you got to show for it? One hat worth about $3.50. Mrs. Jinks—True. And last week you spent five days and $118, and what have you got to show for it? One fish story about a big trout that got away and an awful cold in your head.—Country Gentleman.

An Important Man.

"Always boasting, eh?"

"Yes; everything connected with him is always in the superlative. Even when he had a cataract on his eye it was a regular Niagara."—Kansas City Journal.

Same Thing.

Gillet—See here! Did you tell Bodo I'd been cheated again? Perry—No; I merely said you had made another of your characteristic investments.—London Mail.

Do not allow idleness to deceive you, for while you give him today he steals tomorrow from you.—Crowquill.

BOUNDARY LINE MARKS.

Those Between Hanover and Holland on the Rhine Are Unique.

Many of the international boundary marks display a sentimental as well as a practical character. The famous "River of Farewell," which marks the line between Russia and Siberia, has been celebrated in song and story. This boundary mark stands between Ekaterinburg, in Russia, and Tiumen, in Siberia. It stands on the main road along which thousands of exiles have passed. It is an obelisk of brick, sixteen feet in height. On the west side it bears in Russian characters the word "Europe," and on the east side the word "Asia."

The boundary marks along our northern frontier, separating us from Canada, are of a most practical sort. For many hundreds of miles the St. Lawrence river and the great lakes form the natural boundaries, but there is a vast stretch of prairie land beyond with no natural demarcation. The boundary marks here are pillars of iron and wood placed at intervals of one mile. They have been alternately supplied by the two governments and may be seen from the Lake of the Woods to the Red river valley. Beyond that the marks are mounds of earth and cairns of stone.

The strangest of European frontier lines is that marking the boundary between Hanover and Holland, where it crosses the Rhine. A row of pontoons lies across the river, chained bow and stern. Inasmuch as the dividing line runs through from stem to stern, the eastern halves of the boats are painted in German colors, the western in Dutch. The effect is most striking.

Austria has a frontier line of about 3,800 miles, of which 2,096 is land. Every mile of this must be guarded against the encroachments of Austria's neighbors. Germany is in a similar situation, since her land frontiers, bordering upon Russia, Austria, Switzerland, France, Holland and Belgium are 2,255 miles in extent, and by far the larger portion is not protected by mountains, rivers or any other natural boundaries. The German seacoast, however, is only 744 miles in extent.—Harper's.

STATE HAPPENINGS
News from Fair Florida Briefly Told

It is rumored that Orlando is to have another bank.

The Ocala base ball team has been reorganized and is training for its summer work.

There are approximately 1,800 children enrolled in the various public schools in Miami.

The cane planting is almost finished on the common demonstration farm at Crystal Springs.

The brick has arrived in Brooksville for the paving of the streets in the business section of that hustling town.

The Myrtle street Methodist church at Lakeland has been completed and services were held in the new edifice Sunday.

The ferry dock at the foot of Main street in Jacksonville is to be remodeled and improved. The improvements will cost about $1,000.

News from Palmetto comes that during the season already about 2,000 cars loaded with vegetables have been shipped from there.

The bank of Sarasota is going to erect a twenty thousand dollar block on the flatiron lot at the intersection of Main street and Pineapple avenue in that town.

Work has been started on the white way for St. Petersburg and it is expected that everything will be ready for the lights to be turned on in a week.

The cigar factory which is being erected at St. Cloud is rapidly assuming proportions. The building will be two and a half stories high and of concrete construction.

The Tampa Electric company will spend $400,000 in improvements within the next year. It is said that the plant will be one of the greatest in the south when these new improvements have been completed.

On the 7th of May, Pensacola will enjoy the presence of a party of 200 Indiana Shriners and their wives, who will stop there enroute to the national convention of Shriners, which meets in Dallas, Tex., during May.

The Carrabelle Topics says: "Carrabelle wants a laundry, furniture factory, sand and cement works, box and barrel factory, dairy, hennery, wholesale fish dealers, canning factories, livery stable, truck farmers, phosphate works, waterworks, electric plant, telephone exchange, paved streets." Nothing like working for what one wants.

The long looked for highway from Orlando to Titusville seems to be an assured fact. A direct route to the East Coast has been a dream for many years. The two eastward counties, Brevard and Volusia, have been agitating the building of this road for some time past. At the last meeting of the commissioners for Orange county, the first definite action was taken when along with them met several of the commissioners from the two eastern counties. The outcome of the joint conference was the appointment of a committee to look into the merits of the proposed route and plans. James L. Giles, M. M. Smith, County Commissioner Brown and County Surveyor J. O. Frice compose the committee. The distance is about 40 miles. Titusville is on the main highway of the East Coast, and this would give motoring tourists and business interests a direct and easy method of reaching the interior town of Orlando, and thence to the west coast. Using Titusville as an East Coast terminus, instead of Daytona, would be 20 miles nearer for the traveler from Orlando. The proposed route will pass from Orange into Volusia at Lanbach's ferry on the St. Johns river. Orange county's part of the highway will be about 22 miles. The road is to be 10 feet wide and hard surfaced and will reach Orlando by way of Chiluota and Oviedo.

THE PRINCE GEORGE.

Monday afternoon an auction bridge party was given at the Prince George, six tables enjoying the game. The ladies prizes were won by Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Holroyd and Mrs. Hilbard, while Mr. Skinner and Mr. Ricks secured the gentlemen's prizes. Light refreshments were served in the dining room of the hotel, which had been beautifully decorated in honor of the day.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Prince George included Mrs. C. D. Palle, Miss C. D. Palle, Miss Kellogg, New York; H. C. Ervin, Dr. G. J. Hernaman, St. Cloud, Minn.; Mrs. W. H. Pritte, Miss E. L. UP TO THE FREEZING POINT

Ample Cause Why Miss Oldgirl Should Heave a Sigh on Awaking From Dream.

The shimmering moonlight silvered the placid water. The tinkle of a banjo down in the cabin floated up the companionway and spread itself around the deck. The girl leaned against the rail. The captain was first.

"Miss Oldgirl," he said softly, "from the first minute you decorated this ship with your charming presence, I have worshiped you. Yes, worshiped. Worshiped. As an old sea dog, the word ought to have 'ship' in it somewhere. Will you go halves with me for the rest of this earthly cruise?"

The girl was just about to answer when the first mate appeared.

"Hear me before you promise," he begged. "If you don't make me the happiest man on earth I will jump overboard and stick out my tongue at the life boat. Say, yes; ah, s'yes!"

Softly, though. The second mate is approaching.

"Hear me, are you decided," he besought. "I love you so much it's a shame. Nobody did. Nobody could. Won't you?"

With a start the girl awoke and rubbed her eyes with two knuckles and a sigh. It was her thirty-second birthday, and thirty-two is freezing point.

Widely Separated Cities.

"Now, children, who can name two cities which are widely separated?"

"Boston and San Francisco."

"Correct! Any one else?"

"London and Melbourne."

"Yes. Now two more cities widely separated."

"Simplicity and Duplicity."—Boston Transcript.

"I am told that your new play is drawing crowded houses and that you turn hundreds of people away every night."

"That is merely newspaper misrepresentation, sir. We don't turn anybody away. We tell them in the kindest possible manner that every seat in the house is sold, and they turn away themselves. These lying journalists make me tired!"

Test of Nerve.

"Colonel," asked the beautiful girl, "when was the most trying moment of your life?" "It was when I went to my wife's father for the purpose of asking him to let me have her. He was very deaf, and I had to explain the matter before twenty clerks."

Not an Effective Branch.

The learned counsel was endeavoring to impress the court with the fact that his client had always been anxious to settle. "My lord," he said impressively, "only eighteen months ago we held out the olive branch." "Yes," responded the witty judge, "but there were no olives on it."

Husband Got Even.

In Austria a woman was recently sent to jail for opening her husband's mail. She began a suit for divorce on evidence obtained from the letter and her husband retaliated by sending her to jail for opening the letter.

EASY TO GUESS IT.

What Do You Think Is the Answer to This Puzzle Question?

With the rent six weeks in arrears Scribbler sat trembling lest the landlady should hear the beating of his heart and call for a reckoning. Presently there reached his ears the sound of fierce words, as of two striving together in deadly argument. Scribbler became aware that Mr. and Mrs. Slumpkins were engaged in unravelling one of their domestic tangles.

At length there came a light tap on the door.

Scribbler looked toward the window as a possible avenue of escape. However, before he could make up his mind to try the rainspout route the door opened cautiously, and first Slumpkins' bald head appeared and then the rest of him crept slowly in.

In a whisper he advised Scribbler not to pay Mrs. Slumpkins, inasmuch as she was not the head of the house.

Scribbler acquiesced and Slumpkins disappeared.

A little later another rap on the door, this time more insistent, caused Scribbler to look up. It was Mrs. Slumpkins.

"Say, don't pay my old man any money, Mr. Scribbler. He won't do nothing but drink it up. This morning I had to let him know who runs this house. We ain't speaking to each other now."

Again Scribbler acquiesced.

That was six months ago. They haven't spoken to each other yet, and Scribbler goes on his way rejoicing.

Puzzle question: What will be the first question they ask when they start speaking again?—Satire.

TINY ELECTRIC IONS.

Science Says They Are the Smallest Units in the World.

We used to think that about the smallest thing in the world was an atom of hydrogen. In fact, it was taken as the unit by which the atomic weight of all metals was expressed. For instance, the smallest possible division of the metal lead was found to be 206 times that of hydrogen, gold 196 times, etc.

Hand in hand, however, with the modern conception of the nature of the electric current, has come a new conception of infinitude in small things. Now, they say, the smallest thing in the world divisible by the hand of man is the electric ion. This is the individual unit of electricity, the moving part of a current when it passes through a wire. It is so small that it can run through a copper bar at a speed of 180,000 miles a second without turning corners. Electric ions trickle through a copper wire in much the same way as grains of sand through a sieve.

Scientists, armed with instruments considerably finer than grocery store scales, have isolated and measured them and found that their relation to that lightest of all gases, hydrogen, is as one to the seventeenth power of ten, or, in other words, the fraction representing their relation to an atom of hydrogen is expressed by a million million-millionth. — Chicago Record Herald.

Generous Soul.

"Now, Jim," said the old lady to her son, who was about to leave the countryside to try his luck in London, "there's plenty of money in that big city, for the streets are said to be even paved with gold."

Jim "had his doots," but these were quickly removed, for he had barely got out of Euston station when, to his surprise, he espied slyly reposing on the kerb a bright, glittering sovereign. Eagerly he picked it up and walked a little farther on, when he came across a blind man who was begging.

At once his sympathetic heart went out to the unfortunate man, and as he got the sovereign into his hand he said:

"Take this, my friend. I can see 'em; tha' can't!"—London Globe.

Scared Both of Them.

When Justice Maule was on the bench a bullying counsel was one day browbeating an elderly female witness in a case before him. Having badgered her into a state of utter speechlessness the lawyer appealed to the judge to make her answer his questions. "Why do you not answer, madam?" asked the judge. "Because, my lord, he scares me so," replied the trembling woman. "So does he me, ma'am," said the judge. —Law Notes.

Like the Mythical Dragon.

In the Malay archipelago is a reptile more like the mythical dragon. It has false ribs that extend the loose skin and form its wings. There is also a frog, with spreading feet that makes a parachute which enables it to flit from tree to tree, and a flying lemur that can spread out its whole body like an umbrella and leap and fly a hundred feet at a time, from the top of one tree to another.

Preaching and Practice.

"Isn't it horrid," remarked Miss Dwyfily to her friend—"isn't it horrid that men will put these nasty old pipes into their mouths?"

"Yes," said her friend emphatically as she stooped and tenderly kissed the black face of her pet pug—"yes, indeed it is."—Pearson's.

A Suggestion.

"John," said Mrs. Hillhers, "where can I get a set of resolutions passed by our Civic Sorority yesterday engrossed?"

"I really don't know, my dear," said Hillhers. "Why don't you have them embroidered?"—Judge.

"HONEY BOY" EVANS AND HIS MINSTRELS ARE HERE TONIGHT

PRESENTATION WILL RANK AS THE GREATEST MINSTREL SHOW EVER BROUGHT TO THE CITY OF DAYTONA.

"Honey Boy" Evans and his minstrels will be the attraction at the New Daytona theater tonight and Manager W. S. Snead is going to have a big house. This attraction was only secured by the placing of a heavy guarantee by Mr. Snead and it will easily rank as one of the greatest minstrel aggregations brought to Daytona in many years.

"De Go Lightly Guards' Reception" is the essence of the production afterpiece, the book, the lyrics and score of which were written by the "Honey Boy." Its two settings show a street and the armory of "De Guards," in Hamtown, Ala. The diminutive black face favorite is presented in his favorite characterization of a [illegible] darkey of the lower. "Charley Dobbins Jones" is the ferrigal sobriquet under which he is introduced in the first scene, when he is shown as a fugitive from the law and an alimony-seeking wench. Later he is induced—partly through hunger, majestic in its proportions, and mainly because of a bribe of two dollars—to pose as "General Woof Woof," a famous African military leader. He is at all times the instigator of the many ludicrous, mirth-provoking situations. Charles Hillard, the clever personator of girl kind, is a sensation in this afterpiece as an alluring octoroon heiress, fashionably gowned.

MUST SUMMON NEGROES FOR DUTY ON THE [illegible]

STATE SUPREME COURT [illegible] THAT BLACKS MUST [illegible] DRAWN ON REGULAR [illegible] WITH WHITE PEOPLE.

Negroes must be drawn on regular jury panels, according to a decision handed down by the state supreme court, the decision being rendered in an appeal from Duval county.

A case of embezzlement, the defendant in which was a negro, was tried in the Duval county court. The defendant's attorney was also a negro. In the trial the negro's attorney moved to quash the venire on the grounds that no negroes had been summoned for jury duty in that county in years.

Evidence was produced to show that no negroes had been summoned for jury duty of any kind in that county for a number of years. The court's decision was based not only on a point of procedure, but nevertheless it was such that the case is ordered reversed on the merits of the appeal, viz: discrimination against negroes in jury service.

Chief Justice Shackleford and Justice Cockrell dissented from the opinion of the court.

Raymond Mannon and Charles [illegible] never fail to create a furore with a portrayal of the famous "Texas Tommy dance." "The Daughter of the Regiment," and "De Go Lightly Guards" are its song hits. An elaborate ensemble march is another feature.
